Taranaki Electricity Trust

Election of Trustees

16 JUNE 2023

2023 ELECTION

Every three years, electors in the Taranaki Electricity Trust district elect six trustees:

- three trustees from Ward A; and
- three trustees from Ward B

An election to fill these vacancies will occur by postal vote on Friday 16 June 2023, using the First Past the Post (FPP) electoral system.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the vacancies open on Friday 24 March 2023 and close at noon, Friday 21 April 2023.

Under Rule 2.8 of the Deed of Trust, candidates for the Taranaki Electricity Trust election cannot be:

- a bankrupt who has not obtained a final order of discharge or whose order of discharge has been suspended for a term not yet expired, or is subject to a condition not yet fulfilled;
- a person who has been convicted of any offence punishable by a term of imprisonment of two (2) or more years;
- a person who has been convicted of any offence punishable by imprisonment for a term of not less than two (2) years and has been sentenced to imprisonment for that offence;
- a person to whom an order made under section 383 of the Companies Act 1993 applies;
- a person who has a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992, or its subsequent amendment Acts;
- a person who is not an elector for the purposes of the Electoral Act 1993;
- a person who is not an Elector provided however it is agreed that the provisions of this paragraph (g) did not and do not apply to the signatories to the original Deed during their first term of office or to the signatories of the original Deed who were re-elected at the 1993 election during the first term of such re-election.

Each candidate, together with two nominees, must be on the electoral roll in the ward for which the candidate is standing for election.
